THE MINT DIRECTOR'S PRONOUNCEMENTS: President's Message

Dear Members,

Whew! This coming NCNA Coin Show and Exposition is getting scary. When you stop to add up all the things that will be taking place, one wonders if we had not ought to move it all to Candlestick Park!

The awesome array of events commence with the increase in number of Bourse Dealers--believe at one hundred-fifty tables strong it will probably be the largest group of coin dealers ever under one roof in San Francisco--yes, wall-to-wall coin dealers. Then the international gathering of numismatic Presidents, the heads of most of the national numismatic periodicals, Forum with 'headliner' speakers, Youth Program, an Anniversary Banquet on Saturday evening, and even Whitman Products and others, they will all be literally hanging from the walls. Yes, hanging from the walls. So much will be going on and on display, space being such a premium, NCNA has promised just some space to stand! Displays? Oh yes, our Exhibit Coordinator Elmer Benson is arranging for super Exhibits.

Now comes the Auction, as if we were not already swamped. Ron and Dennis Gillio will be on hand with their Pacific Coast Auction Galleries and its Fifth NCNA Auction. This alone could and would be enough of an attraction; understand the material is out of this world.

I am tired just thinking about it, and we are so happy that we have the capable hand of Michael S. Turrini making numerous arrangements. He is moving so fast you cannot even see him.

You will all have to come to this FREE event just to see if it all really happens.

Anxiously awaiting the 'big shoe'.

Yours Very Truly,

Denis N. Hooker
President

THE MINTMASTER'S QUILL: An Editor's Prerogative

My Friends,

I feel compelled to write this editorial and speak to those in northern California who in reading will feel equally compelled to add their voices to a united chorus.

As many NCNA Heads and Tales readers know, the beloved and respected Ozzie Stout suffered a terrible disabling stroke last October. This stroke has ravaged Ozzie and struck him from active contribution to numismatics in northern California and particularly his dedicated support to the Pacific Coast Numismatic Society, Napa Valley Coin Club, Redwood Empire Coin Club, and Vallejo Numismatic Society, as well as other groups and coin clubs.

What is not well known to many NCNA Heads and Tales readers is that for over three decades, Ozzie, before retiring and relocating to northern California, was an active member of our neighbors to the South in southern California numismatic circles.

Now as the twilight comes, it is time to call upon coin hobbyists to reward, to honor, and to recognize this man for his loyalty and contributions to our hobby.

A feeling, based on my reverence of my dear friend, directs me to call upon coin hobbyists and coin clubs throughout northern California to unite, to act, and to petition Krause Publications to bestow the coveted 'Numismatic Ambassador' award upon James Osmyn 'Ozzie' Stout.

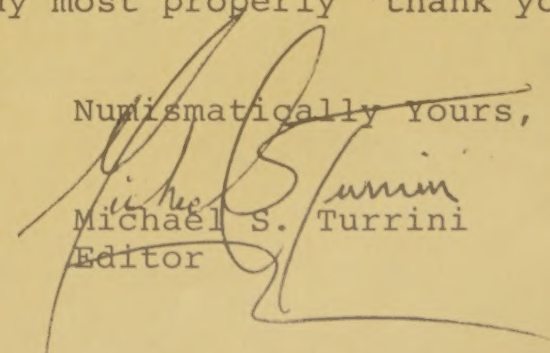

Few in our region deserve this honor as much as Ozzie does. His love and his work for numismatics are evidence enough, but far more important is that numismatics in our region has suffered a tragic loss, a void not easily filled. Gone is the moderation, love, and example displayed by Ozzie.

It is fitting and proper for people to honor those who have given their full measure. It is in the nature of men and women to pause at times and to reward those who have given of themselves. It is right and just to bestow honors, especially upon those who justly deserve them.

To this end, coin hobbyists and coin clubs petition Krause Publications and do so now.

The twilight has come. It is time to pause and to remember. It is time to reflect. It is the time to say most properly 'thank you, our dear friend, Ozzie'.

Numismatically Yours,

Michael S. Turrini
Editor

GOLD MINER DIGGINGS: NCNA News and Happenings

1986 Election

About late August or early September, ballots for the 1986 Officer Election will be mailed. Needless to say, all NCNA Members are encouraged to vote.

1986 National Coin Week Enticement Program

Last April had twelve or thirteen local northern California coin clubs participating; however, your Editor does not have a list of those coin clubs actually submitting Final Reports. NCNA Treasurer Ed Sins has made, though, all $100.00 cash grants.

It is not known at this time if NCNA will repeat in 1987 this Enticement Program, as the same or altered. Suggestions from coin clubs are welcomed. Please sent to your Editor.

Board of Directors Meeting

The next quarterly and final Meeting before the September Coin Show and Exposition will be on August 24, 1986, 1:30pm, at the Cathedral Hill Hotel, Van Ness and Geary, San Francisco.

This will be an important meeting as the Board of Directors has much to discuss and finalize with the Coin Show and Exposition so close. As always is true, all NCNA Club Members are warmly encouraged and invited to send a voting Club Delegate.

1986 Coin Show and Exposition

Is set for this September 25, 26, 27, and 28, 1986 at the Cathedral Hill Hotel, formerly Jack Tar Hotel, in San Francisco with a full four days of one hundred-fifty table Bourse, Auction, exhibits, United States Mint booth, Educational Forum speakers, Youth Program, drawings, commerical displays, and the special 'Numismatics Into 21st Century' forum.

Enclosed with this Issue is a Numismatic Fact Sheet provided details on this year's Coin Show and Exposition. NCNA Heads and Tales readers are encouraged to review this Sheet, noting the activities and program of this multi-event Coin Show and Exposition.

Also enclosed is an Announcement Card of Dennis and Ron Gillio's Fifth NCNA Auction, through their firm of Pacific Coast Auction Galleries. The Auction is in two sessions: Thursday and Friday evenings starting at 7:00pm sharp. As the card notes, catalogs are available. Contact at address given.

In addition, to encourage and reach the maximum participation, an Exhibit Application is also sent with this Issue. As usual, NCNA is noted for the quality of its awards, and exhibiting is open to all.

The Bourse, as reported previously, has been enlarged to one hundred-fifty tables. With this increase, NCNA can be better able to attract a quality mixture of local, national, and international Bourse coin dealers. As of this Issue, only a few tables remain. Potential coin dealers are invited to contact:

Denis H. Hooker
NCNA Bourse Coordinator
65 Post Street
San Jose, California 95113
408-295-1488

Along with the Auction, exhibits, and expanded Bourse, a drawing will also be held. Prizes are: First, a $20.00 Double Eagle, Second, a $10.00 Eagle, and twelve Thirds, 2½ Pesos, a total of fourteen coins! Drawing Tickets will be available at the Coin Show and Exposition and through several NCNA members at various coin clubs. Interested in obtaining Tickets to buy or sell contact:

Ron Miller
NCNA Drawing Coordinator
3769 Peralta Blvd.
Fremont, California 94536
415-792-1511

The major attraction for this 1986 Coin Show and Exposition will be the national numismatic figures attending and participating at the various events scheduled. Such an assemblage does not happen that often:

Presidents

Florence M. Schook, American Numismatic Association
Harry W. Fowler, American Numismatic Society
Anna M. Cross de Torres, Sociedad Numismatica de Mexico
Stanley Clute, Canadian Numismatic Association
O. L. Wallis, California State Numismatic Association
Lorna R. LeBold, Numismatic Association of Southern California
Denis N. Hooker, Northern California Numismatic Association

Speakers

David W. Lange, Educational Forum
Anthony Swiatek, 'Mr. Commem', Educational Forum
Bill Fivaz, ANA Governor, Educational Forum
Calvin O. Wilson, Educational Forum
Clifford Mishler, Krause Publications, MC for Banquet
Beth Deisher, Coin World Editor, Moderator

+++++

Tentative

N. Neil Harris, The Numismatist Editor
Donna Pope, Director of United States Mint
The Honorable James A. Baker III, Secretary of The Treasury

As can be read, there will be certainly a gathering of numismatic figures, all of whom will be available to meet and mingle with coin hobbyists.

NCNAers involved in the 1986 Coin Show and Exposition are: Denis Hooker, Bourse; Constance Perham, Security and Banquet; Edward Sins, Exhibit Awards and History; Stan Turrini, Pubicity and Educational Forum; Elmer Benson, Exhibits; Ron Miller, Drawing, and Lillian Hooker, Registration.

What is reported here and with the enclosed information is everything known and confirmed to date. NCNA Heads and Tales readers and their families and friends are welcomed to review this information and are warmly invited to attend and enjoy the outstanding 1986 25th Annual Silver Jubilee Northern California Numismatic Association Coin Show and Exposition.

One final note, the quality of this Coin Show and Exposition may make it a major numismatic event of this year. Coin hobbyists everywhere may regret not attending, so mark your calendars today.

Numismatics Into 21st Century

The previously listed Presidents plus other nationally known numismatic notables will be involved in an open round-table discussion with audience input on the future trends and concerns in numismatics over the next two decades going into the next century. This special forum will be moderated by Beth Deisher and may include N. Neil Harris, Clifford Mishler, and Donna Pope.

This event will be September 27th, Saturday, at 1:30pm, and is open all coin hobbyists and the public.

Coin hobbyists from throughout our state are invited to attend this special event which should give provocative insight and ideas as to the probable future of numismatics.

The 'Numismatics Into 21st Century' forum should be the highlight of the 1986 Coin Show and Exposition.

Anniversary Banquet

The main celebration of NCNA's Silver Jubilee 25th Anniversary will be the Anniversary Banquet on September 27th, Saturday evening, No Host Hour 7:00pm and Dinner at 8:30pm. Reservation Form with dinner +++++ choices is enclosed. Please note the deadline date of September 18th.

The Anniversary Banquet is intended to be a simple, not elaborate, affair with a minimum given to speeches and maximum to time to meet and mingle and enjoy an evening with the invited guests, NCNA officers, and national numismatic notables.

The cost may seem high; however, it averages only to one dollar for each year of NCNA. The cost should not prevent NCNA Members and former Members and friends of NCNA attending and contributing to this event, the celebration of NCNA's Silver Jubilee 25th Anniversary.

LAST STRIKINGS: In Memoriam

Victor Titoff

Victor Titoff, whose life and times span our globe from Imperial Russia to the modern United States, passed away last May 9th.

Victor was well-known for his ready exhibiting at coin shows throughout our state, and his collections, whether Russian, Chinese, or American, accented gold.

Your Editor remembered once attending a PCNS Meeting at which Victor was displaying as his Show 'n Tell gold bars; it was just fascinating to view and handle so much gold.

Your Editor's regret is that he never got to know Victor better, no matter how hard his deep Russian accent was, for his life was the stuff of history, and gone is another great coin hobbyist.

POSTED FOR YOUR INFORMATION: Silver Round Collectors

State Silver Round Organization

If you are interested in or are an active collector of silver rounds, there is talk of forming a state-wide association dedicated to silver rounds. Nothing is firm, but there is interest in gathering and discussing such at the September NCNA Coin Show and Exposition in San Francisco.

Your Editor is acting as a clearinghouse and coordinator of the current rudimentary discussions. If you are seriously interested and willing to attend the Coin Show and Exposition to act on this, please contact your Editor at: "PO Box 4104, Vallejo, CA, 94590".
